

Suggested Interview Questions for WAHPM – Tamara Hancock

1. How do you take the time to manage the schedule of 5 active children, cake decorating, and your administrative clients?
2. What is the number one reason you chose to take your career out of the office and into the home.
3. How do your children feel about mommy working from home?
4. It sounds like you are incredibly busy- running to a lot of different activities, how do you take time out to relax?
5. Why do you feel it is important for WAHM's to maintain their own identity – outside of mother and professional?
6. What do you do to maintain your identity?
7. How can you involve your children in your business activities?
8. When you have days that the "unexpected" happens – how do you deal with it?
9. It is impossible to schedule everything, especially with children, yet you say you have everything scheduled to the minute, how do you make that work?
10. How do you manage to also maintain a household with such a busy and chaotic schedule?
11. Do you feel like you are overworked or burdened sometimes by all that you have going on?
12. What is the one piece of advice you would give other WAHM's who are frustrated, or who are just starting?